Mr Rule is a highly regarded executive with extensive experience over 17 years in the Australian mining industry. He joins Sundance from ASX-listed African uranium producer Paladin Energy Limited, where he has been Chief Financial Officer since July 2012.

Mr Rule has considerable experience in international financing of mining projects, implementation of accounting controls and systems and mergers and acquisitions. Sundance Managing Director Giulio Casello said Sundance was delighted to have attracted a highly-regarded and talented mining executive such as Mr Rule.

"We are confident that Alan's experience with international financing of mining projects and particularly his knowledge of ASX-listed companies with iron ore operations and African projects will be of significant value to our company," Mr Casello said.

"His appointment comes at an important time as we move forward with our development strategy and particularly with the securing of financing for the Mbalam-Nabeba Project."
